- g) publishing competition results lists on the above-mentioned online media channels, using the competitor's full name, year of birth, start number, club name, country, final placing in the competition, photographs showing the competitors' image, and video material.
- 3) The legal basis for processing your data is the legitimate activity carried out by PFFS, understood as the organization of Fitness Sport competitions in furtherance of the Federation's statutory objectives.

4) In connection with the processing of your personal data, the data may be disclosed to other recipients or categories of recipients.

Recipients of your data may include:

- a) PFFS employees and associates (judges, the secretariat responsible for calculating scores and preparing category tables, and volunteers preparing prizes for competitors);
- b) external entities and their employees or associates responsible for preparing and printing diplomas for competitors;
- c) other participants in the organized competitions;
- d) persons present at the competition venue;
- e) users of websites and social media services, including Facebook and Instagram.

5) Your personal data will be processed for the period necessary to carry out the competition, and, with regard to the data provided in the registration form, until you object to the processing.

6) In connection with the processing of your personal data by PFFS, you have:

- a) the right of access to your data;
- b) the right to rectification of your data;
- c) the right to erasure of your data;
- d) the right to restriction of processing;
- e) the right to object to processing;

7) If you consider that the processing of your personal data by PFFS infringes the provisions of the Regulation, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority. However, we kindly ask you to contact us first at biuroafs@gmail.com in order to seek an amicable resolution of the matter.

8) Providing your personal data is voluntary; however, it is necessary in order to participate in the organized competition.

9) If you have any questions regarding the processing of personal data by PFFS, please contact us at biuroafs@gmail.com.

I HAVE READ AND ACCEPT THE ABOVE TERMS
